

Methods for Plein Air Painting: Mastering the Basics

Gorge view east from Rowena. Photo by Darryl Lloyd | www.longshadowphoto.com

"Painting is an adventure. Each work is a simple sentence in an ongoing story that will take a lifetime to unfold."

Randall Sexton

California based artist, Randall Sexton, is nationally known for the use of color and expressive brushwork in his oil paintings of "everyday" scenes. A "painters' painter," according to Jean Stern, (Executive Director -The Irvine Museum of Art.) "Randall, one of the premier contemporary California landscape painters, also paints still-lives, figures, and portraits with equal mastery... His work evokes deep feelings, whether it's the solitude of a deserted street at night or the exultation of a beautiful landscape, each speaks softly to the viewer."

www.rcsexton.com

Panoramic views, lush landscape, and brilliant color will inspire you in this 4-day intensive workshop in the Columbia River Gorge. Students will explore painting techniques focusing on composition, value, color, edges and brushwork, in the studio and en plein air. Highly sought as an instructor, he has a "hands-on" approach to teaching that focuses on the individual needs of each student.

July 20 - 23, 2009

Workshop Fee: $520

Includes an artists' dinner with Randall Sexton on Wednesday, July 22nd.

Lodging additional

Deposit Due by June 1st: $260

To Register:

Please contact Shelley Toon Hight
Education & Outreach Coordinator
Columbia Center for the Arts
541.387.8877 x 114
eando@columbiaarts.org

215 Cascade Avenue • Hood River, OR
www.columbiaarts.org

