

Soroptimist International of Hood River and Columbia Center for the Arts proudly announce:

A Photography Contest

“If We Are Women”

We are soliciting photographs depicting women in families: good times and bad, alienation and coming together, joy and grief. The makeup of 'family' can be varied: two women together, daughters caring for family members, extended family, or a woman and her dog...

Prizes will be awarded for professional and amateur/student categories. Display of finalists will be concurrent with the production of the play If We Are Women during the month of June of 2008 at the Columbia Center for the Arts. Grand prize winning photo will be featured on the program cover for If We Are Women.

Virginia Woolf was quoted in the play, “We think back through our mothers, if we are women.”

In a beautifully crafted work, the playwright has filled her story with great humor, warmth, tears, confrontation, emotional blackmail, and everything else that goes on in families.
